

Exactly what we have been afraid of is happening.
The Sinclair company is using OUR airwaves to send partisan messages.

You are supposed to be protecting us from this, and you have failed in your responsibility unless you police their showing of politically driven ads, especially this close before an election.